About CNCo:

The China Navigation Company (CNCo) is the wholly owned, deep-sea shipowning and operating arm of the Swire group. CNCo was founded in 1872 in Shanghai and started its operations trading on China's Yangtze river. Since then the Company has expanded globally while its primary operational focus remains in the Asia-Pacific region. The Company operates a global network of multi-purpose liner services for the transportation of containerised, breakbulk, heavylift and project cargoes in addition to providing drybulk and bulk logistics services.

About Swire Shipping:

Swire Shipping is the liner shipping division of CNCo, the wholly owned deep-sea shipping arm of the Swire group. The Company operates multiple liner trades, servicing its core trading area of New Zealand, Australia, Asia and the South Pacific and extending to Europe and North America. Swire Shipping's versatile fleet of multipurpose ships is capable of carrying a wide range of general, unitised cargoes (including heavy and bulky project lifts), break-bulk parcels (steel, forest products), bulk parcels, as well as containerised cargoes (general and refrigerated).
